

REGIONAL ANIMAL SHELTER STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

S.O.P. # G-1

SUBJECT: Volunteer Program

DATE: June 18, 2009

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this directive is to establish guidelines and information for volunteers supporting the Regional Animal Shelter (R.A.S.) operation and special projects.

II. POLICY

The volunteer program will be administered by the R.A.S. Manager and staffed by individuals desiring to perform such a service. It will be the policy of R.A.S. to utilize qualified individuals for all possible tasks or functions, except those which legal requirements and/or elements of danger make such involvement impractical. Therefore, certain guidelines have been developed to ensure security, confidentiality, and safety.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Selection of Volunteers

1. R.A.S. will host a volunteer orientation meeting two (2) to four (4) times per year. Notice of such meetings will be published in an area newspaper of general circulation and invite attendance by interested persons.
2. The orientation shall include an overview of the functions and duties of R.A.S., and the operation of the shelter.
3. Volunteer position descriptions and applications shall be made available at the orientation for persons interested in these positions.
4. The R.A.S. Manager will review applications and schedule interviews.
5. Selection of appropriate volunteers will be based upon the needs of R.A.S. and the indicated ability of individual applicants to meet those needs.

B. Qualifications for Volunteers

1. The volunteer program is designed to meet the needs of R.A.S. Volunteers must be willing and able to support the philosophy, policies, and procedures of the R.A.S.
2. Volunteers must be at least sixteen (16) years of age.
3. Younger individuals may volunteer with constant parental supervision with approval of the R.A.S. Manager.
4. Volunteers must complete a Volunteer Application listing personal information, skills, hours/days available, emergency contacts, etc.
5. Volunteers must submit a notarized liability agreement, acknowledgement, and release form. Volunteers under eighteen (18) years of age must have parental signature on the release form, giving permission for the individual to perform volunteer work.
6. Volunteers must indicate by signature that they have received a copy of the Volunteer Handbook and the policy governing volunteers.
7. Volunteers shall sign a statement attesting that they have never been convicted of animal cruelty, neglect, or abandonment.
8. Volunteers shall have his/her own dogs and cats, 4 months old or older, vaccinated against rabies; and have current dog license from the county in which the volunteer lives.
9. Volunteers serve at the pleasure of R.A.S. and the Manager.

C. Placement of Volunteers

1. All entry-level volunteers will be paired with a mentor or senior volunteer for a minimum of sixteen (16) hours.
2. All entry-level volunteers will have the position of Animal Care Assistant or Office Assistant as their first assignment.
3. Future volunteer assignments will be based upon an application and selection process determined by the needs of R.A.S. and individual qualifications.

4. Volunteers must satisfactorily complete the specific training requirements of the assigned volunteer position.

D. Work-Schedule of Volunteers

1. Volunteers are required to commit to a minimum of eight (8) hours service per month.
2. The schedule for volunteers will remain flexible to accommodate regular employment and other commitments.
3. At the beginning of each month, volunteers will provide the R.A.S. Manager with dates and times they are available to work. Because of the reliance R.A.S. places on volunteers when considering allocation of staff, volunteers are required to notify R.A.S. at least 24 hours before they are scheduled if they are unable to work.
4. Volunteers must sign in and record their hours on a volunteer time sheet each time they provide volunteer service.

E. General Rules and Policies for Volunteers

1. Volunteers shall conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times and abide by department policies and procedures for conduct in the workplace.
2. Volunteers must dress appropriately for the conditions and performance of their duties. Volunteers working in the Shelter must wear long pants and closed shoes for safety purposes.
3. Volunteers are representatives of R.A.S. and like paid employees are responsible for presenting a good image to the citizens and other community members who visit the shelter and therefore, must maintain a neat, clean appearance.
4. Volunteers shall maintain the confidentiality of R.A.S. activities. Volunteers may not discuss any of the civil or criminal transactions that take place at the shelter. These transactions include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Animal impoundment
 - b. Prior animal owner's information

- c. Complainant information
- d. Criminal history
- e. Court cases

5. All requests received by a volunteer for any such information shall immediately be directed to the R.A.S. Manager or designee.
6. Volunteers shall have access to all public areas of the R.A.S. Access to any other area of the R.A.S. shall be defined by the volunteer's current position description.
7. Volunteers shall comply with appropriate supervision and access levels as defined by each position description.
8. Volunteers shall only be permitted in the R.A.S. or on its grounds when a staff member is present.

F. Duties

Volunteer duties are defined by the position description for that job title. It is possible however for volunteers to hold more than one position.

G. Staff Conduct with Volunteers

The volunteer program is designed to allow the R.A.S. to benefit from the service of citizens who wish to make a contribution to the welfare of animals and to the community. It allows the R.A.S. to achieve goals that would not be possible through the sole use of staff.

1. Staff shall treat volunteers with courtesy and answer their questions and inquiries in a professional, caring, and informative manner.
2. All staff shall cooperate with volunteers in the proper performance of their duties for the good of the R.A.S. and the welfare of the animals.
3. It shall be the duty of all staff to advise the R.A.S. Manager of any violation of policy or procedure by any volunteer.

H. Resignation/Termination of Volunteer

1. R.A.S. reserves the right to terminate any volunteer if:
 - a. It becomes apparent that the individual no longer meets the needs of the R.A.S.

- b. The volunteer fails to abide by the rules and policies of the R.A.S.
 - c. The volunteer fails to follow instructions or otherwise impedes staff in the performance of their duties.
2. When a volunteer resigns or when he/she is terminated, the volunteer shall return any issued R.A.S. property to the R.A.S. Manager.
 3. The R.A.S. Manager will conduct an exit interview with the volunteer after notification of a volunteer's intent to resign from the program. This interview will ascertain the volunteer's reasons for leaving the program and assist the R.A.S. Manager in improving the program when and where possible.

AGREEMENT, ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, AND GENERAL LIABILITY RELEASE

This agreement dated this ____ day of _____, 20____, by and between the Regional Animal Shelter (hereinafter referred to as "RAS"), and the individual volunteer worker (hereinafter referred to as "Volunteer"), who's name appears on the signature line below;

Whereas RAS and Volunteer each acknowledge and agree that there are certain inherent dangers and risks involved in the services provided at the Regional Animal Shelter, the parties do hereby agree to the following:

1. The parties acknowledge that the type of work performed at the shelter exposes the parties to the risk of zoonotic diseases, including but not limited to rabies infection. The parties further acknowledge that the RAS recommends to volunteers that pre-exposure rabies vaccination be obtained. The RAS cannot pay for the cost of the rabies vaccination. You, the Volunteer, should consult with your physician about receiving the rabies vaccination and its cost. The parties acknowledge that the volunteer cannot be mandated to have the rabies vaccination, but acknowledges that the RAS encourages the volunteer to have the rabies vaccination.
2. The parties acknowledge and agree that should the volunteer choose not to have the rabies vaccination performed, the volunteer does hereby release and waive all possible claims arising out of election to not receive the rabies vaccination, including but not limited to any and all medical bills, negligence claims, or any other legal actions arising out of refusal to obtain rabies vaccination.
3. The parties each acknowledge that there are other inherent risks in this line of work, including but not limited to bites, scratches and infection. Volunteer is required to wear long pants and closed toe shoes while volunteering at the Shelter. Volunteer does hereby release and waive any and all claims, including but not limited to legal and medical claims arising out of any such occurrence that results from volunteer work at or for the RAS.

It being the specific intent of this agreement, acknowledgement and release that in consideration of the services provided by the RAS and the opportunity for volunteer work with the RAS, that each volunteer will indemnify and hold harmless from any liability, actions, claims, and demands of every kind of nature whatsoever that the volunteer may have in connection with his/her participation, the County of King William, the King William County Board of Supervisors, the County of King & Queen, the King & Queen County Board of Supervisors, and all of their agents, employees, and staff.
