

King & Queen County
Electoral Board Provisional and Canvass Meeting
For the November 7, 2017 Election

Chairman, Armistead Ransone, called the Provisional Ballot meeting to order at 10:00 am on November 8, 2017. Chairman Ransone, made a motion to go into closed session for the purpose of reviewing qualifications of provisional ballots cast at the November 7, 2017 election. The motion was seconded by David Broaddus. After review of qualifications presented by the General Registrar, Chairman Ransone reconvened the meeting into an open session. Certification was made that only matters regarding provisional ballot qualifications was discussed during the closed session. Electoral Board cast vote in open session to qualify or disqualify provisional ballots based on information presented in the closed session. The Provisional Ballot meeting was concluded at 10:30 am.

Electoral Board Chairman, called the Canvass of the November 7, 2017 to order at 10:30 am. The electoral board proceeded to canvass the election results from all precincts including the Central Absentee Precinct. There were no discrepancies found in the results that were reported election night. The canvass concluded at 11:30 am.

Armistead Ransone, Chairman
David Broaddus, Vice Chairman
Mary Ann Levere, Secretary
Diane Klausen, General Registrar