A Home Business is defined as any occupation, profession, enterprise or business activity conducted within a single-family dwelling which is the bona fide residence of the principal practitioner, or conducted within an accessory building located on the same lot and clearly accessory to the dwelling. In order to qualify as a home business, an activity as described herein must be clearly secondary to the principal dwelling use of the premises and must meet all the following criteria, which are intended to distinguish such activity from a home occupation and from other business uses:

- not more than one (1) person who does not reside on the premises may be employed on the premises in the conduct of the activity.
- There shall be no signs, other than one (1) sign not to exceed six (6) square feet in area and no displays or alterations to the exterior of the building that would distinguish it as a nonresidential structure; and
- There shall be no group instruction or assembly, no housing of persons for compensation, and no product offered for sale other than that which is produced on the premises or which may be incidental to the primary service rendered.

A Home Occupation is defined as any occupation, profession, enterprise or similar activity conducted within a single-family dwelling which is the bona fide residence of the practitioner, or conducted within an accessory building located on the same lot and clearly accessory to the dwelling. In order to qualify as a home occupation, an activity as described herein must be clearly secondary to the principal dwelling use of the premises and must meet all of the following:

- No one other than the member of the family residing on the premises may be employed on the premises in the conduct of the activity
- There shall be no signs, displays or alterations to the exterior of the building that would distinguish is as a non-residential structure; and
- There shall be no group instruction or assembly, no housing of persons for compensation, no product offered for sale on the premises, and no service rendered directly to clients or customers on the premises.

CONTRACTING:

Unlicensed contracting is illegal. You may be in violation of state law prohibiting illegal contraction – which includes home Improvement and roofing, etc. without a state license. Even if you possess a local business license, in most cases you are also required to hold a state license from the Virginia Board of Contractors. Don't risk it! Contact the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation (DPOR) to find out how to comply with the law. (804) 367-8511 www.dpor.virginia.gov

The State Corporation Commission requires any business using a fictitious or assumed name to register with the SCC. Virginia Code 59.1-69, states, "No person shall conduct or transact business in the Commonwealth under any assumed or fictitious name unless such person files in the office of the clerk of the Commission a certificate of assumed or fictitious name." You can access the form online at <https://scc.virginia.gov/pages/Forms-and-Fees>.

A copy of the Certificate of Assumed or Fictitious Name must be provided to the Commissioner of Revenue's Office before a business license will be issued. A business license will not be issued unless the fictitious/assumed name is registered with the SCC.
